Customer Reviews

There is NO prelude comic, no original material, nothing new. All you get is a comic adaptation of the first GotG movie and a handful of Marvel reprints which have nothing to do with either film. In fact, two of the reprints are of the original Guardians of the Galaxy which are a completely different set of characters all-together set 1000 years later. This was a total rip-off. I will be canceling my other MCU prelude pre-orders and will simply wait to see if they are also devoid of anything new before purchasing. I'm very upset at Marvel for this shameless and deceitful cash-grab.

There is no new content to be found here, and no "Prelude" to the events of GotG Vol 2. All this contains is a horribly drawn adaptation of the first movie, and some older Guardians comics. This is not why I bought this, and I am promptly returning it.

Where's the new content? Even civil war had a short "mission". I liked all the other preludes to get me revved up for the new movie, but will wait for further reviews before buying the new spiderman or thor

I'm a Marvel fan and a huge fan of the MCU. I even read all the prelude comics. So, naturally, I pre-ordered this back in October. Imagine my excitement when it arrived today. But imagine my disappointment when I actually read it and realized IT CONTAINS NO NEW CONTENT. There's no actual "prelude" story leading into Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2 like there was for Doctor Strange, Civil War, and every other MCU film since Avengers (at least!) Instead, there was a two-part comic book adaptation of the first GotG film and three non-MCU comic reprints: an old story involving Mantis, an old story involving Yondu, and a fairly recent story about the Guardians and Avengers teaming up--this last one is literally only a couple of years old (it takes place just before 2015's "Black Vortex" event.)

So glad I didn't buy this. Money grab. No prelude to GOTG2. A comic adaptation of the 1st movie and some old reprints. Blech.
