Customer Reviews

These are a great babysitter; and they provide great foundational learning at the same time! Our Son LOVES these. A++

I give all the Adventures in Odyssey a 5 star rating! I originally bought a short CD for my daughters to listen to as they fell asleep at night, but after hearing one of the episodes in the car one day, my husband and I got hooked! These are fantastic. They are entertaining, have great moral lessons, include facts and stories from history, and use talented voice artists. I HIGHLY recommend these audio CD's. They are now on every birthday and Christmas list!

These CDs are incredible! All three of my children love them and they are 7, 9, and 11. We have a 25 minute ride to their karate class and we would listen to these CDs on the way and on the way home. One of the side benefits is that the sibling squabbling ended because they were all so focused on hearing what came next. I even found myself driving slower just to hear the end of the story! I learned a lot from these CDs about our country's history and truly appreciated the high quality performances and sound effects of each recording. I just can't say enough about how wonderful these stories are and how they shed light on God's place in our history! Another success for Focus on the Family--they really are the best christian family organization out there!

Odyssey never disappoints. "For God and Country" was no exception. We loved listen to the excellent recreations of important American events. If you want history to "come to life" for the whole family, this is quite possible the best purchase you can make.

We love the Odyssey series and I decided to get this one for my homeschooled 2nd grader. He loves science, but doesn't really care about history. Until these cds. He is enthralled by them and it's opened up great conversations between us. Best part? I like listening to them, too.

Although are chidren are grown and our grandchildren are older, it is very appealing to young juvenile's. Brings history alive!

Great fun for the kids. They love it.

My three kids 10, 8 & 5 all love it. Got it for learning the Revolutionary War along with the Liberty Kids. Great stuff. Highly recommend.
