Imam Suleiman Hani is a lecturer and author hailing from Michigan, USA. At the age of 14, he completed a 10-month Qur'an memorization program in the USA and subsequently began leading prayers across the nation. Shortly thereafter, he began his intensive studies under local and global scholars, completing hundreds of classical and modern texts and gaining ijazat (licenses) in the six books of hadith from multiple scholars, as well as a Master's of Arts from the College of Shari'ah, University of Jordan. Suleiman has served as an Imam and youth director since the age of 19, lectured at conferences and workshops around the world, and has recorded several comprehensive series with the largest Islamic TV channels in the world. Imam Suleiman presently serves as an instructor and researcher at various educational and humanitarian institutions, the CEO of several business ventures, and serves as an Imam and Religious Director in Michigan. His most recent hobbies include mixed martial arts, archery, writing, and traveling. Â

Great book and I recommended it to everyone that wants to memorize the Quran.

asalam alaikumi went through the book in 2 hours its an excellent compilation of why i should and we should memorize the Quran honestly thinking back to myself i cannot believe that I never undertook this giant task before. It is no joke because it is the word of Allah. the best compilation is about the rewards associated with memorising; my fav was the one for your parents! make dua for my journey as I make for everyone who has and will undertake this path inshallah!

excellent book for our young men who interested in memorizing the Holly Qura'an.

Excellent!

Jazak Allah Khair for a well written book. Enjoyed reading tips about memorizing Quran
