Customer Reviews

Ã¢â€œl prefer not toÃ¢â€•Ã¢â€œl say too much about the story itself as to do so with a fairy tale like Chloe and the Unicorn by Guy Teague could unintentionally provide a spoiler. Instead, IÃ¢â€™ll tell the prospective reader this little gem of a story will remind some of the Lady and the Tiger tale (with an extra door), provide insight into how karma works, and resolve (finally) how the historically varied descriptions of the unicorn came to settle on a powerful white horse with a two-foot, single horn projecting from its forehead. I can and will tell dear reader this exemplary story is exceptionally well written and edited, and compares with such great fairy tale writers as Joseph Jacobs, Hans Christian Anderson and yes, even the Brothers Grimm. If thatÃ¢â€™s not enough to entice the reader to pick up this story for less than a buck, wellÃ¢â€• some folks are simply thick.
