This is absolutely adorable!! I have never gotten so many chuckles off a bunch of postcards before!

is typically my go-to site for postcards. I buy a whoooole lot of postcards as I'm an avid Postcrosser, but I found this set at a cheaper price from another retailer so it wasn't purchased here.Ok, with that out of the way, I should state I'm not a Dolly superfan--but if you are, by all means buy this set ASAP as you'll certainly be happy with them! But I purchased these more for my general collection. They're appropriately pink and girly, printed on decently thick glossy card stock, with 2 each of 10 designs totaling 20 cards. They were a bit of a pain to remove from the glued binding; a few cards were a bit bent in the process and I had to pull excess glue from the border. No biggie, but worth noting. The quotes included are about what you'd expect and include gems like "People say I look happy--and I say 'That's the Botox'" and "I would never stoop so low as to be fashionable". But I was disappointed to see more text and graphic backgrounds than Dolly herself. She's included as only a very tiny cartoon head on all but one of the designs. Call me crazy but Dolly cards, even ones highlighting her 'wisdom', should still feature more actual Dolly! Plus, the text on over half of the cards is soooooo reflective and SHINY silver that it's very difficult to read in some lighting conditions. Perhaps that was intentional--these are blingy and so is she. The address side, a glossy finish so chose your pen wisely, is totally free from any text or even an address template; the only printed field is a little faux Dollly postage stamp. They're a standard 4x6.Bottom line is these are cute and I'll find a few recipients who will enjoy them, but probably only ardent admirers of Dolly's zingers should invest in the purchase... as this isn't the most ideal Postcrossing set. If the quotes were a little easier to read and included a bigger image of Ms. Parton, they'd be a 5 star set.
