King James' Aversion: Royal Sagas 3: Tudors To Stuarts

Synopsis

Wrongly imprisoned in the Tower of London and with her execution imminent, Henrietta, great grandniece of Queen Elizabeth and secret scion of King Henry's line, has entrusted her last hope â “ King Henryâ™s ruby cross - to the guard with kindness in his eyes. Will this mysterious stranger prove worthy of such blind trust? Will word reach the queen before the executioner's axe ends her life? All things hang in the balance for the de Greys, even the fate of Coudenoure itself as the Tudor line yields to the Stuarts, a family with no ancestral gratitude for everything the de Greys have sacrificed for the crown. Will this be the end of Coudenoure?

This is fiction, I know. I can't find any reference to Coudenoure. Unfortunately, chipmunks aren't native to England. Only the United States. So early on in the book I had problems. I will keep reading and hope for the best.

I'm still trying to read it.

Good book. Not my favorite of the three. Story continues with the DeGrey family and their exploits. Ends with a cliffhanger so I will be reading at least one more in this series.

I have enjoyed all three books, and am anxiously waiting for the fourth book. I have found them very interesting, and believable, They are well written.

When will book four be done; please let me know???. A book just can't end in sadness and greed!!

I enjoyed reading this story that is based on historical basics. I find it's easier to learn history and historical dates by being able to associate them with down to earth daily life.

I loved this book as well as the first in the series. The endings leave me breathless. This series is well written, there is romance, danger, intrigue and wonderful history. The characters are well defined and strong. I strongly recommend this series to lovers of historical fiction.

If you're looking for a great story line entwined with real history, these books are for you. Starting with Elizabeth and Henry at Coudenoure , and following the estate and it's owners through the world of Henry VIII, Elizabeth I and, finally James I, the Sagas are filled with imagery and adventure. King James Aversion continues where the death of Elizabeth I and her greatest friend and niece, Bess, left off. Because James I was not raised in England he has no history with the people of Coudenoure or England and has a difficult time adjusting. While at the same time the world of Coudenoure continues on in it's own unique way...
