John Grisham lives with his family in Virginia and Mississippi. His previous audios include The Chamber, The Client, The Firm, The Pelican Brief, The Runaway Jury, The Rainmaker, The Partner and The Street Lawyer.

EDIT 1-13-15I listened to the first 3 CD's "A Time to Kill". It seemed really, really short so I looked into the next 3 CD's, "The Firm". The complete book, The Firm, is on 17 CD's. The "Value Collection" version is on 3 CD's. WHAT KIND OF VALUE IS CUTTING OUT 82% OF THE BOOK! I don't even know how they could tell the story in that little time. They should call it the "Horribly, mutilated slightly longer than a summary version." I bought the longer version of The Firm to enjoy and now the "Value Collection" is a paperweight.ORIGINAL REVIEW:I am enjoying the stories and the narration very much, but there are only 3 CD's for each title. Other similar books, including some from John Grisham have been on more disks and also seemed to have more details. I got suspicious and checked the product description carefully. It says "Abridged edition." They don't specify what was abridged, by how much or why. It just makes the very compelling stories (All made into major motion pictures right?) seem short and have less depth. I thought I was getting a deal getting 3 different books for one "low" price, but maybe not.

He always has great books. I love the audio books and some times find it hard to stop listening before it is finished. I like that I can listen as I am driving also.....hard to do with a book. Anyone who has a hard time reading, for whatever reason, would benefit greatly with an audio book (especially, John Grisham's books.)

I haven't finished this book yet, but in style and content it goes beyond Grisham's previous works: Even more of the good stuff.Grisham's main character engages in some classic self-destructive behavior, right up front. The portrayal of these life-changing events nudge the reader's sympathy for the man, without actually elbowing it off the table entirely.I will not reveal more of the story or action at this point, but the character lands on his feet and follows his curiosity early on. While that seems like a losing proposition at first, Grisham leads the reader farther and farther along the character's path, while he, the actor, begins to wander into some of the most interesting, intriguing and possibly fertile fields in the country. Grisham's inside knowledge of the world of lawyers, courtrooms and judges cradles the reader in a nest with an incomparable vantage point. One can almost see oneself in the scenario. Co-experience that of the characters as they adventure themselves into the (to them) new, dangerous, exciting and possibly lucrative world of tort law and the trial lawyers' eye-opening courtroom methodology for winning.

John Grisham is a great novelist. I don't have a lot of time to read anymore, but I drive a lot a lot during the course of my work day so I listen to a lot of books on CD. This collection has three of the authors earlier works packaged together at a great price.

While these are early works they were just right to listen to in our car as we drove across the country. We couldn't wait to get back in the car each day to continue the story.

I am just finishing up The Client and I'm sorry it's coming to the end. Got a great deal with 3 books in one set. All of my favorites put together just for me! The people who did the narration actually sounded like the actors who portrayed the main characters in the movies! Exceptional narration!

I HAD SEEN ALL OF THESE IN MOVIE FORM AND WANTED TO SEE HOW CLOSE THE MOVIE SCRIPT WAS TO EACH GRISHAM NOVEL IN THIS COLLECTION. THEY WERE REALLY CLOSE TO THE REAL GRISHAM! BUT AGAIN HOW CAN YOU IMPROVE ON GRISHAM'S WORK? I ENJOYED ALL THREE AND ESPECIALLY THE READERS WITH THEIR INFLECTIONS! THEY SOUNDED ALMOST LIKE THE MAIN CHARACTERS IN THE MOVIES. ANYTHING GRISHAM HAS IN AUDIO I WILL CERTAINLY OBTAIN. THANKS TO FOR YOUR WONDERFUL WEB SITE TO PURCHASE SUCH GREAT PRODUCTS.

Great audio book.
