Customer Reviews

Thomas Pavitte, born in New Zealand, is a graphic designer and experimental artist who often uses simple techniques to create highly complex pieces, and whose dot-to-dot pieces have been enjoyed by people all over the world. He set an unofficial record for the most complex dot-to-dot drawing in 2011 with his version of the Mona Lisa, in 6,239 numbered dots, which took him weeks to prepare and nine hours to complete.

I highly recommend all of Thomas Pavitte's dot-to-dot books...no others are as good.

This was a great new book for any fan of Guardians of the Galaxy. Get ready to be challenged by some very cool Dot-to-Dots and also have a blast in coloring the completed pictures afterwards. The images that you get really work to draw you into the Guardians of the Galaxy world. I know my daughters loved making these and to be honest I did too!
