Customer Reviews

Some editorial fingering, but otherwise good facsimile of the original. The recording is good and was made on a well voiced, instrument.

Unlike the book for children by Schumann, which all starts to sound the same to me after a few pieces, the pieces in this collection all have a very unique sound. There is a Russian melody, Italian melody, French melody and each has a quality distinct to those cultures. My favorite is the waltz, which is a great prelude to learning more complex waltzes. There are also some sad funeral march type pieces. Any mood you could want is represented in this easy to play collection for small hands.

Great beginner pieces. The Schirmer Performance Series has really useful note concerning playing each piece. The paper is non-gloss and easy on the eye.
