Customer Reviews

The words "crystal ball" usually conjure images of old Gypsy women telling fortunes from the backs of caravan wagons, but Uma Silbey assures us that Gypsies are not the only ones who can master the art of Crystal Ball Gazing. Based on her 30-plus years of experience working with crystals, Crystal Ball Gazing has a personal feel, so it doesn't read like a technical manual. Almost half of the book is devoted to helping choose the right crystal ball for the job. (Focusing on healing? Try using amethyst.) Crystal Ball Gazing is not just about divination, though; Silbey offers plenty of practical applications such as relaxation. Like any tool, crystal balls can be of immense benefit if used properly, and Silbey shows just how to get the most out of yours. --Brian Patterson
