Customer Reviews

This is a recipe book for body and skin lotions made from natural ingredients. It is much like a cookbook although the recipes are used to create lotions to nourish the body and skin rather than to eat. The author decries the high cost of commercial lotions, butters, and creams, many of which have negative side effects. She encourages the reader to prepare their own body and skin care lotions using natural ingredients to save money and make lotions that are healthier and without side effects. The book has a brief introduction followed by 50 lotion recipes. Each recipe is composed of a description, list of ingredients, and step-by-step directions. As an example, the ingredients in a homemade lotion called "Seductive vanilla lotion" are olive oil, beeswax, coconut oil, cocoa butter, vitamin E oil, and vanilla extract. The following is a sampling of other lotion recipes: Seductive Vanilla, Smooth Clay, Sun Blocking, Natural Sunscreen, Combining Lavender, Rosie Shea, Aloe Vera, Coconut Tea, Non-Greasy Cocoa, Creamy Chamomile, Minty Summer, Eczema Fighter, Creamy Coconut, Wild Rosy.

I passed this to my mum and she was rather amazed at the recipes and their effects. Although she/we did not manage to try all if not a handful of them, it was still a good bonding experience and a rather effective way to relief stress and take time off from our hectic lives. The lotions work as they provide a blend of different properties from a variety of ingredients.

Good book. Great Book. Lots of valuable information for a new do it yourselfer. I love to learn new things and this is something that I really want to learn more about. I want to stop using chemicals and getting more into natural ingredients.

I flip through the book and so far have not had time to make my own lotion hopefully in the near future I will and can write a better review but what I saw on the book look great found a lot of good recipes I hadn't tried yet and am looking forward to continuing my experiments with the recipes in the book.
