Loved these books for my sons when they were little so ordered for my nephew and he loves them too!

My kids loved the English version and thought the Spanish version was equally funny. Plus it's a simple story which made it easy for them to learn the Spanish words.

booooooooooring. i usually love sandra boyton books but this was boring, and not well illustrated. i returned this item.

ONE OF MY TRIPLETS' FAVORITE AUTHORS AND EVEN BETTER IN SPANISH

This is one of my kiddo's favorite books. He loves to participate in the innocuous "Ah Caramba!" at the end of each phrase, and it's helping with learning his colors. We read this at least once a day. He loves it.

This is a good book, but I was a bit disappointed with the translation, it does not flow as well as it does in English.

Rather than reading this, I sing it to my son in order to make it sound more appealing, and he laughs and giggles when we get to the Ay, Carumba part. He also giggles at the end when the turkey dives into the water in his clothes. I read the English version, and I couldn't seem to get into a groove in reading it, so I only read my son this one. He loves it. I think this version is actually better than the English version!

Perfect for my 3 year old
