Book by Barry, Tom, Vernon, Dylan, Resource Center (Albuquerque, N. M.)

If you're looking to travel to Belize for leisure or study, this book is a required read. With much more information than you can find in ANY travel guide, this book was used for a college class I took in 1997-98. This book includes information on politics & government, the economy, society & ethnicity, social forces, environment and foreign influences! That's quite a bit of info for such a tiny country, and Barry tells it well. In my opinion, this book is the best reference available on Belize. Even if you're just a casual traveler to this country, you can benefit from knowing so much about it. If you've ever travelled somewhere and wondered about that place's political or historical background, a book like this will answer all of those questions and probably more. And as for the country of Belize, it's truly a gem!
