Recorder Tunes From The Heart: 163 New Tunes For Solo Descant Or Tenor Recorder. With A Folk Feel And A Refreshing Spontaneity

Synopsis

163 Tunes for solo descant or tenor recorder. Many composed out of doors, and noted down quickly with few or no changes. The idea was to compose more and more spontaneously, like the way many Impressionist painters painted, and the way Japanese and Chinese calligraphy is done, and also the way birds sing. EXTRA CONTENT: When you buy the book, you can then download the tunes as a pdf for printing out, e.g. to put the music on your music stand. You can also download them in abc notation (which lets you customize the score, e.g. add annotations, and also preview the music in midi format which can help with tricky rhythms). Can be played on other recorders, by reading the score as for a descant. Also because of the recorder's small range, they should be playable on any melodic instruments with two octave range from middle C. WANT TO HEAR WHAT THEY SOUND LIKE? You can listen to a selection of them in a playlist here on youtube. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EQ7bfZLI7nw&list=PLSf4m16KZKV5T6U5EE-Oh_dg2fdY-6NnF FREE SAMPLE PDF AND ABC, ALSO TO SHOW IN YOUR WEB BROWSER You can get a free sample here with the first 23 tunes: <http://robertinventor.com/heartsample> DEDICATION I wrote these after my mother died, staying in the house she lived in, so she was an inspiration for the tunes. So I dedicate them to her. For my mother Anne Walker, Died September 2005 age 81
